How can ICRPC help me?

You can file complaint with ICRPC. The officers at ICRPC will send legal notice to the Opposite Party.

Can I complain to ICRPC over telephone?

No, Every complaint is required in writing with supporting documents. There is a proper procedure for this.

What if the Opposite Party does not settle the issue even after receiving notice?

Then you have an option to file a case in the consumer court. ICRPC will help you in making your case papers to present in the court.

Does ICRPC charge for making the case papers?

Yes. Very nominal and affordable.

How much?

Depends on the nature of complaint and the value of claims.

How much time it takes by the court to give judgment?

Between 1.5 years and 2 years if everything goes on well

Do I need to hire a lawyer?

No. you will not require any lawyer. You can attend the hearings on your own. It is a very easy process.

What if I am unable to attend the court hearings due to other commitments?

You can appoint a representative on power of attorney.

Can I file joint complaint with fellow citizens?

Yes. If the issue and the jurisdiction of court is the same.

C) ACTION BY ICRPC AFTER RECEIVING YOUR COMPLAINT DOCUMENTS:

1) After we receive your online form with uploaded or couriered documents, we take about 20 days to send notice to the defaulter company. We also acknowledge the receipt of your complaint after we open the couriered envelope and check your complaint. If the complaint has defects, not as per the above procedure, or does not contain proper details to understand your complaint, then it may be rejected and Rs 500 will not be refunded. Rs 500 is non-refundable.

2) If your issue is not resolved through our notice, then we ask you to proceed with filing a case in the consumer court.

3) We would help you with the preparation of your case papers for filing in the consumer court. We charge nominal fee for preparing the case papers. No need to hire a lawyer as that will be expensive. We will help and guide you till you get the judgment from the consumer court. You can fight your own case and learn the process in order to help others too.

Any further communication to be sent only to mail@icrpc.org

IMPORTANT:

Time limit to file complaint in the consumer court?

Complaints can be filed within 2 years from the date of cause of action.

What is the cause of action?

It is the reason or violation, about which you came to know, and against which your complaint arises. The date when you learnt about this defect is the date of the cause of action. It can also be a letter or an email that has given rise to the cause of action.

Thanks !
